MEGA COASTAL CLEANUP - 8

June 2017

Chennai trekkers club (CTC) had organized a mega coastal cleanup activity on June 18th 2017. It was started at 6 A.M and we were opted to clean Akkarai Beach, ECR, and Chennai. Ms. P. Kaythry, Our NSS Programme officer led the event. A group of nearly 30 NSS Volunteers comprising both boys and girls from various departments started the journey around 5 AM from our college and reached the venue at 6AM. Our NSS officer created awareness of throwing wastes in public places while travelling in the vehicle.

Venue coordinator Ms. Sundhari, along with other CTC members welcomed us. They gave us brief talk in need of the coastal clean-up. Later they informed us how to segregate the waste things and collect it. Our student volunteers collected the bags and hand gloves from the CTC members. We collected garbage in and around the shores and their involvement showed that they were much interested to make global clean and greenery. We were also instructed that not to collect degradable wastes. We volunteers collected glass bottles separately, Styrofoam's, slippers separately and all plastic items separately. We were doing the coastal clean-up for 3 hours i.e from 6 AM to 9AM. We collected the waste in the beach for a stretch of 2 kms. There were 20 bags of garbage were collected by our student volunteers. Refreshment were provided by both CTC and by our NSS Programme officer for not to getting tired. Certificates were also given to the participants. There were 20 bags of garbage were collected by our student volunteers and they were brought to the place where they segregate glasses, recyclable and non-recyclable waste.
